Notes

Example prices for a small site build. Not a going rate.
The homepage is a fixed number from the written scope. The interior pages were added later and are billed by the hour so the fixed price is not quietly stretched.
The $500 deposit was collected before the kickoff call. New clients on this sample pay that deposit first. The stock photos are a pass-through, not a markup.
Balance due in 14 days. If you charge a late fee, write the rate in the agreement before the work starts, then point at it here. This sample does not invent one.
